

LOCAL YOUTH PROGRAM RECEIVES STATE RECOGNITION

Contact:

Joyce Okes, Program Director
Workforce Investment Board Mid-Ohio Valley
304-424-7271

joyce.okes@movrc.org

October 17, 2008, Ripley, WV

The Youth Advantage Program has been selected as West Virginia's Outstanding Youth Provider for 2007-2008 by Workforce WV.

The award was presented to Ross IES, Youth Advantage Program during the annual Workforce WV conference in Chester, WV on July 30th, 2008. Youth Advantage Program staff will be honored by the Workforce Investment Board Mid-Ohio Valley with a luncheon on Friday, October 17th. Each staff member will receive a plaque in recognition of their dedication to the youth of our region and the State.

"We want to recognize all of the local staff who have contributed to the success of this Youth Program", said Joyce Okes.

In addition to Youth services, the Workforce Investment Board Mid-Ohio Valley provides employment and training programs for adults, dislocated workers and seniors. For more information, please visit www.wvworkforce.org.